I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.

Our Greatest Treasure

What was your experience when you came to St. Paul’s? I first arrived at St. Paul’s Church in December of 2015. Nancy and I had flown from Wyoming to meet with your search committee. Mike picked us up at the airport. We had dinner with Mike, David and Harriet. During the next 24 hours we met Dick, Ieva, Betsy, Art, Marion, Walley and at least ten other members.

It was a strange experience. I should have felt nervous. Instead I felt like I was home. Each and every person was warm and welcoming. We had real conversations. People asked real questions and gave real answers.

The search committee took us on a tour of Syracuse and a tour of St. Paul’s. I immediately felt at home in Syracuse. I think that has something to do with growing up close to downtown in Cleveland, Ohio, which has a similar history, climate and character. I was interested in the history and complicated juxtaposition of St. Paul’s physical spaces and impressed with the beauty of St. Paul’s cathedral building.

But the most beautiful part of our quick, introductory visit with you was being with you, the members of St. Paul’s. My words will fail to convey exactly what makes St. Paul’s different for me, but it has to do with the way people are welcomed and the quality and honesty of conversations. People at St. Paul’s have a different way of engaging others. You have a warmer way of welcoming new people into this community.

St. Paul’s is blessed to have many resources for ministry. We have these large, beautiful buildings perfectly situated for ministry at the crossroads of Syracuse and Central New York. We have a significant endowment, which allows us to exercise a ministry that is far larger than would be possible through member contributions alone.

But the greatest treasure we have is the community and fellowship of our members. None of us is perfect and no human community can ever be perfect, but in my eyes, St. Paul’s is, more than anything else, a fellowship of love and hospitality. This is what Jesus describes during the last supper, as it is depicted in John 13.

What has been your experience at St. Paul’s? You might guess I received some special treatment when I first arrived, yet I don’t think I am the only one who has had this experience. I encourage you to tell me about your experience, good or bad. I hope you have seen at least a small portion of the love and hospitality of St. Paul’s.

There is no question that the strength and warmth of your community at St. Paul’s is already having an effect. During the last several months I have noticed that on many Sunday mornings more than half of the people sitting in the nave at our 10 a.m. worship service are relatively new members or repeat visitors. The same thing is true on a smaller scale at our 8 a.m. worship service. We have a high proportion of new members. A few came to St. Paul’s from other Episcopal churches, but most are new to our tradition. These new members first came to St. Paul’s for a variety of reasons, but most of our new members have stayed because of you and the community and fellowship you support through your involvement. They have stayed and are becoming more engaged because of this great gift of fellowship.

I encourage you to join with me in nurturing, growing and caring for this gift. That might sound odd, but community and fellowship and love do not just happen; they require attention and care. We pay extra attention to our buildings and our mission work and different elements of our worship. As we enter into the work of 2020 let’s give some extra attention to the greatest treasure of our church; our community and fellowship as brothers and sisters in Christ.

Fr. Philip
Thoughts from the Senior Warden

—By Betsy Elkins

Philip’s observation about St. Paul’s and our greatest treasure, the community and fellowship of our members, is indeed true. He experienced this immediately as many others have as well. Our church, or any church, is not really a building, it is its people. Our sense of community and fellowship is very strong at St. Paul’s and this is what will carry us through our work this year and into the future. Many of us speak of our St. Paul’s family. We are a faith community that works closely together to make good things happen for us and for others. We are not unlike a family working together, loving and caring for each other. I see this over and over. We help each other as we work together whether in the kitchen, in the choir, at a meeting (all places I spend a lot of my time) and the work gets done because we care about St. Paul’s and we care for each other.

And yet as with any family, things can get complicated. We all have our distinct personalities and quirks! We don’t always agree. We can become frustrated or impatient with one another. And yet, when these things happen we rally around each other, offer help and forgiveness or whatever is needed, and move on with love.

As Philip indicated in his article, the community, fellowship and love that abounds at St. Paul’s doesn’t always happen automatically; like any good relationship, it requires work. In our Feminist Theology group this month we will be discussing Pilgrimage of the Soul by Phileena Heuertz. She talks about the idea of mutuality and how we all need each other. In Bible study today we read a passage from 1 Corinthians: 13:9: For we are God’s people, working together…” I am so grateful for St. Paul’s, this faith community, this family, this loving group of diverse and interesting people that continues to work together.

So, in the spirit of Valentine’s Day and in the words of the Beetles song “All we need is love!” We got it!
Before you hit REPLY ALL to a church email, please ask yourself if everyone on the mailing list really needs to know your comments like “That’s Great” or “Thank You”. When you RSVP to a meeting, please just reply to the leader or whomever sent you the email. Do not send it to everyone on the same list please. Often times Father Philip or Judy will have over 80 emails in a single day. We don’t have time to wade through the endless email chains to figure out if there is some important information that we need to have.

Thanks so much to ALL of you for your help in limiting the number of emails so we can continue to serve the needs of St. Paul’s in a timely manner.

YMCA Ministry—Celebrating Chinese New Year and a birthday
—By Debbie Bogan

Many thanks to Carol Decker and her team for their long hours shopping and preparing a special Chinese dinner on January 31. It was a most enjoyable evening.

This Chinese dinner provided a great opportunity for socialization. It was even more special, as one of our guests, Barbara, a senior resident of the Downtown YMCA, celebrated her birthday with us. She and Christine, another YMCA resident, enjoyed our hospitality.

Events like this, help the parishioners to get to know our downtown neighbors and develop caring relationships.

More Cards Just Arrived...Get Yours Now.
New Cards by Bill Elkins Includes Rainbow Doors

As a small fundraiser for St. Paul’s we are making some new cards available for sale. Cards with a colored sketch of the “rainbow doors” on the E. Fayette St. side of the church have been donated by the artist, Bill Elkins. The cards, which are 5” x 7” and blank on the inside, may be purchased for $5 each or 5 for $20. There is a supply in the church office or you may speak with Betsy Elkins on Sundays if you are interested in purchasing a card or two or five! Thanks for supporting St. Paul’s in this way.
Beginning last October, The Caring Place @ St. Paul’s (TCP) has been providing a place of safety downtown for homeless people. For this ministry, members and friends of St. Paul’s gather each Thursday between 10 am and 2 pm in the Brewster Room and provide people who have housing insecurity with a safe place where caring relationships happen. We have welcomed guests from the immediate neighborhood of St. Paul’s (including the YMCA), the Main Library, the Samaritan Center (also a ministry begun at St. Paul’s), the Near North Side, and the Rescue Mission.

We have found that one of the surest ways to provide a safe place is to share a healthy meal. In this safe environment, our guests have shared their time and their stories with us. As we have gotten to know our guests, we are humbled to hear the stories of peoples’ lives and their struggles and then to reflect on the many blessings in our own lives.

So far, several members of St. Paul’s, almost all who are regular Team Members of TCP, have prepared the meals for TCP. And now we recognize that we need more folks from St. Paul’s to help prepare the meals for TCP. One thing is for sure, St. Paul’s certainly has one of the best equipped kitchens anywhere!

TCP’s Team Members recognize that the Holy Spirit is evidently at work in our midst. In order for this ministry (i.e., service to God and neighbor) to thrive and grow, we especially need more folks to prepare meals for TCP. I ask that you prayerfully consider helping to provide a meal for TCP. Based upon our experience to date, you will receive blessings through this ministry. If you would consider making a meal for TCP, please contact Jim Doyle at 699-5129 or via email: doyj02@gmail.com. We place this ministry in God’s hands. All it takes is a caring heart and some experience to prepare a meal.
Feminist Theology
—By Laurie Sanderson, Leader

Feminist Theology meets the third Tuesday of the month in the Brewster Room at 7:15. Our next two meetings are February 18th and March 17th. This month we are discussing "Pilgrimage of a Soul" by Phileena Heuertz. In March we are planning to discuss "The Underground Railroad" by Colton Whitehead.

Again, ALL are welcome. Please speak with Laurie Sanderson, Betsy Elkins, Derina Samuel, Ieva Doyle, or Tiffany Minor. We have members from outside of St. Paul's and welcome more!

Common Threads
—By Laurie Sanderson

Common Threads continues to meet the first Tuesday of every month at The Nottingham in the Fish Room, as the guests of Nancy and David Ridings. In March we meet on the third. We will meet at 7:15 pm. Bring a craft to work on, and if you have some extra yarn, needles or hooks, bring them along, sometimes interested residents join us!

This month was a riot. We welcomed Ellen to our group and had all sorts of visitors, including a few men! If transportation is an issue, speak to Laurie Sanderson or Betsy Elkins and we will see what we can do!
Pastoral Care
—By Laurie Sanderson

Pastoral Care will be back to its scheduled meeting times on Sundays, February 23rd and March 22nd following the 10 am service, at about 11:30.

Please let us know if there are any special concerns or prayer requests. We continue to gather food items for All Faith Pantry and personal care items as well.

A special request; The Reverend Suzy Hariff, an American Baptist minister, who Laurie and Father Philip know, has an active ministry not only here in Syracuse, but also in Rwanda. She goes for several weeks a year. She has requested that this year she would like to fill a suitcase with leftover hotel toiletries, shampoos, soaps, etc. to bring to Rwanda this summer. If you have some in your house or are planning a trip, please save them and bring them in, we will have a box in the narthex for them. If you like, you could also buy some travel sizes in the store. Thank you!

In addition to supplying prayer shawls for our ministry here at St. Paul’s, we are now offering them to Spiritual Care at Upstate Hospital. Margaret Sherwin makes so many and we are so grateful to her, but others are welcome. If you would like a pattern to use, please talk with Margaret Sherwin or Laurie Sanderson.

PRAYER REQUESTS? If you have any prayer requests, please contact Laurie Sanderson directly by cell phone: 315 420-1518 or by email: lascsw3@aol.com.

St. Paul’s is the Place for Downtown
Children’s Ministry
—By Debbie Santucci, Children’s Ministry Leader

I am so grateful for the time I’ve had at St. Paul's Church. It is very difficult to put into words. The congregation here simply shines.

I am moving to Cleveland, Ohio to live and work in a L’Arche community there, so that I may be close to my son and daughter. My time at St. Paul's will always be precious to me because of all of you. As beautiful as our building is, it is loudly and clearly the people, not the building, that make St. Paul’s the place of blessing and hope that it is. How special it is to have been part of that.

I thank you for your support of my work in St. Paul's Children’s Ministry. What a fruitful time it has been, and what a joy. This is the last time I get to invite families to bring their children to the yellow room at the top of the stairs, where you will continue to find space to be and play, hear a story, and get creative. I know that the Wardens and Fr. Philip have been working to have new leaders in place to guide and support the children throughout this school year. Thank you to them and every person who has given of themselves to children whom we see for a while and children we get to watch grow. It’s been a privilege all around.

Symphoria Reception March 1: An Invitation to Help
—By Betsy Elkins

The next Symphoria Casual Concert at St. Paul’s will be on Sunday March 1 at 2:30 followed by a reception which we host in the Hanson Dining Room. Many of our members enjoy these concerts as well as helping with the hospitality we offer to the orchestra and the concert goers. If you haven’t had this experience we invite you to join us, for the concert and to help with the reception. We need help with set up between the later service and the concert and with clean up following the reception. You may also contribute some simple finger foods (cheese, crackers, dips, chips, small sandwiches, cookies, etc.) for the reception. We would also be happy to receive some monetary contributions to offset the cost of any food that we purchase. Please write a check to St. Paul’s clearly marked for March 1 Symphoria Reception.

Thanks for any help you can offer to this mission of hospitality and community outreach! I look forward to hearing from you. Betsy Elkins (eaelkins@esf.edu or 315-949-1222)
Women’s Retreat in May
—By Laurie Sanderson

Attention, all women: Our women’s retreat is scheduled for Thursday, May 14th, gathering around four, through Saturday May 16th, ending with lunch at St. Margaret’s House in New Hartford.

We are pleased to announce that the Reverend Kathy Corley will be our retreat leader. Our retreat is titled, "Wild nights are my glory!* Thriving in the Storms of our Lives.

Through conversation, prayer, a variety of activities, and quiet time, we will explore what has helped us to survive the storms and how we can thrive.

A letter will be sent out shortly, please consider joining us!

* Mrs. Whatsit from A Wrinkle in Time by Madeleine L'Engle

Friends of St. Paul’s Consort will present Bach’s Cantata No. 131, Aus der Tiefe rufe ich, Herr, zu dir (“Our of darkness call I Lord, to Thee’), Sunday, March 15 at 4:00pm, with choir, soloists and instrumentalists, all conducted by Arthur Lewis. Other baroque music for instruments will also be presented. Please join us!

More details soon...
It’s cold and flu season. As a close, welcoming community we are sometimes torn between two needs: the need to interact with others and participate in worship, and the need to keep our members healthy. Here are a couple of steps you can take to help our members stay healthy:

Get a flu shot. When you get a flu shot you reduce your chance of getting a serious case of the flu and you help protect others. It’s called herd immunity. Influenza is a dangerous disease; 2100 Americans died in 2019 as a result of influenza. Flu shots are safe and the possible side effects of receiving a flu shot are much less of a risk than the risk of getting the flu. When more of our members receive a flu shot, the risk is reduced for all of us.

Do not dip communion bread in the chalice and do not touch the chalice with your hands. According to the CDC there is less risk of disease transmission from drinking from the common cup. The risk is greater for others if you touch the chalice with your hands. “The consensus of the National Center for Infectious Diseases … is that a theoretic risk of transmitting infectious diseases by [drinking from] a common communion cup exists, but that the risk is so small that it is undetectable.” (American Journal of Infection Control, vol. 26, #5.)

If you are especially vulnerable to disease or have symptoms of illness, do not receive the wine during communion. It’s all about reducing risk. You can reduce your risk by receiving the bread alone. You will notice the Eucharistic Minister does not touch your hands when placing the bread in your hands. The Sacrament of communion is complete in either form, bread or wine. (We have a fancy name for this: the doctrine of Concomitance.)

If you have symptoms of illness, do not shake hands with others during the peace. A smile and a wave is a great alternative to shaking hands and it keeps others safe.

If you are in the first week of a cold, or if you have the flu, please avoid contact with other members. If your cold or other illness is contagious, it is a sign of respect and caring to keep some space between yourself and others.

March 6, 2020 Menu: We’ll honor the March Saints’ days: Leek & Potato Soup—St. David, who said, “It’s good to take a leek before going into battle.” He propped it behind his ear. Stuffed Jumbo Shells on Red Sauce—St. Joseph, and Green Salad and Grasshopper Pie—St. Patrick

April 3, 2020 Menu—Still Lent: Amalfi Coast Shrimp & Potatoes, Asparagus w/ Lemon Butter, Salad—Lettuce w/Russian Dressing, Dirty Banana Trifle

The February Chinese Dinner was wonderful. 80 people attended, and we got many rave reviews. Thank you to all who helped setup, prepare and cleanup: St. Paul’s people included Beverly Bolton, Judy Mc-Adoo-Pelton. John Pizzi, Carolyn Grieb, Mark McGrath, Bodo Rosao, Jean Stanton, Hal Brown, Staci McHugh, Deb Long and D J Igelsrud. It was a labor of love. The crew from St. David’s, headed by Gretchen Stappenbeck, worked untiringly to make the dinner a success. Thank you to Donna Miller, Dottie Reifenstein, and George Coble for all the chopping, mixing and cooking.

The highlight of the evening was the Tai Chi demonstrations by the 15 members of the Taoist Tai Chi Society, both before and after dinner.

It was a pleasure to see 80 people in the dining room enjoying themselves. Thank you all for attending.

Dear Friends at St. Paul’s,

We’re so grateful for your generous support of Cristosal. Friends who stand with us are more than just a source of much-needed funding; you are also an encouragement in challenging times.

We begin 2020 with a celebration. Years of accompanying victims of forced displacement by violence in the Northern Triangle of Central America have led through the courts and back again to the National Assembly in El Salvador, which just passed a law guaranteeing government assistance to Salvadorans displaced by violence. Cristosal’s role in advocating for this law was recognized on the floor of the Assembly, which passed the bill on a unanimous vote. Three years ago the Salvadoran government did not even recognize the existence of internally displaced people. Sometimes this work feels like chipping away at a mountain. Occasionally a boulder breaks loose and we get to see dramatic results from all that hard, painstaking work!

Your support allows us to keep chipping away. More importantly, you are a part of holding up a vision of thriving, stable communities in which all of us and all of our neighbors can live in peace and safety.

We acknowledge your generous donation of $1,443.44, made on 12/18/2019. On behalf of our entire board and the team in El Salvador, Guatemala and Honduras, thank you.
